FIANCÉE: Kidman
NICOLE IS ENGAGED TO KEITH

By TOM PETTIFOR

NICOLE Kidman yesterday revealed she is engaged to country singer Keith Urban.

The pair have been dating for months but she has previously refused to even confirm they are an item.

But when Nicole, 38, was yesterday asked if she was taking her boyfriend to a New York charity dinner she replied: "He's actually my fiancé."

The confirmation of the engagement ends months of speculation about the couple, who were first spotted together last July.

In November she was photographed wearing a ring on her wedding finger while walking arm-in-arm with Urban, 38.

At the time his spokesman rubbished engagement reports as "just rumours".

Nicole was married to Tom Cruise for 10 years, until they divorced in 2000.

FORMER EastEnder Shane Richie is to star in the 32nd Carry On film with Vinnie Jones and Victoria Silvstedt.

Shane, 42, will play the boss of Lenny's Limos which ferry the stars, including Victoria's character, to the Herberths - London's answer to the Oscars.

Vinnie, 41, plays club owning gangster Tony Le Bere - known as two fingers Tony in Carry On London.

Shane said: "I grew up with the Carry On movies and was thrilled to be asked to star in the new film."

Celebrity Big Brother winner Chantelle Houghton and Little Britain's Matt Lucas have also reportedly been asked to be in it.

The Carry On revival was first launched in 2003 but hit money troubles and the original cast dropped out.

Bhs chief Phil pays for snog with Kate Moss.. then gives it away to a GIRL

TYCOON Philip Green paid £60,000 for a kiss from Kate Moss at a charity do - then gave his prize away.

The Bhs boss insisted his pal Jemima Khan take his place and Kate, 32, was happy to oblige, going into a 60-second clinch with Hugh Grant's girlfriend, also 32.

Former market trader Phil, 54 - believed to be worth around £billion - said last night: "It was all a bit of fun. I made the bid on condition that Jemima did the kissing."

Other star guests who turned up for the party at Annabel's in London included Sade Frost, Jade Jagger and Jerry Hall.

The event was in aid of the Hoping Foundation for Palestinian refugee children.
